On July 28, 2015, the undersigned entered an Order vacating the scheduling order at the parties' request in order to permit the parties time to finalize the terms of a settlement agreement that was reached on June 8, 2015, and to prepare a formal settlement agreement, as well as ancillary documents relating to the approval of the proposed class settlement. The Order provides that if the parties' settlement is not consummated or approved by the court, the parties shall submit a revised scheduling order within 10 days from the date of the Order denying approval of the settlement.
